AMERICA'S TRAVELING
BUDDY HOLLY TRIBUTE BAND

Buddy Holly & The Crickets were one of the most influential rock and roll groups to ever exist. Founded in 1957, Buddy & The Crickets have inspired virtually every major rock & roll performer, including great artists such as The Beatles, The Rolling Stones, Bob Dylan, and countless others. The Rave-Ons are a fresh take on this great music, bringing youthful energy and talent that cannot be matched, while also staying true to Buddy's original style. They perform classic hits like That'll Be The Day, Peggy Sue, It's So Easy, Oh Boy, and Rave On to keep the music and spirit of their favorite rock & roll icon alive.

Founding member Todd Meredith has starred in 19 productions of the Buddy Holly Story musical including two national tours. He formed the Rave-Ons in 2011 and they have since been performing their tribute concerts

regularly at

Though the Rave-Ons specialize in playing the great music of Buddy Holly, they also offer a wide range of 50's rock and roll classics including songs by Elvis Presley, Eddie Cochran, Bill Haley and The Comets, Chuck Berry, Carl Perkins, and many others. They have also created a concert celebration featuring the music of Buddy, Ritchie Valens, and The Big Bopper entitled The Night The Music Lived that commemorates their final concert in Clear Lake, Iowa on February 2nd, 1959.

BUDDY HOLLY TRIBUTE SHOWS

THAT'LL BE THE DAY: A Tribute to Buddy Holly & The Crickets

The Rave-On's feature show is a fresh take on the catalog of Buddy Holly & The Crickets featuring all of the band's hits as well as some lesser known gems. Todd Meredith & The Rave-Ons will take you on a musical journey starting with Buddy's early recordings at Decca Records in Nashville, through his breakout hits with Norvajak Studios in Clovis, ending with the story of his ill-fated final tour. The audience will laugh at the humorous banter between numbers and learn about the interesting history of this influential group.

THE NIGHT THE MUSIC LIVED: A Tribute to Buddy Holly, Ritchie Valens, & The Big Bopper

On February 2nd, 1959, Buddy Holly, Ritchie Valens and the Big Bopper performed at the Surf Ballroom in Clear Lake, Iowa. The plane crash that occurred hours later changed music history forever. Using information gathered from documentaries, books, and the memories of musicians at the show, Buddy's last concert is recreated with utmost attention to detail and accuracy. Featuring classic songs like That'll Be The Day, Peggy Sue, It's So Easy, La Bamba, Oh Donna, and Chantilly Lace, THE NIGHT THE MUSIC LIVED is a sure fire hit at theatrical venues.

ROCKABILLY LEGENDS

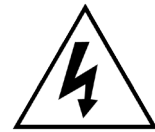

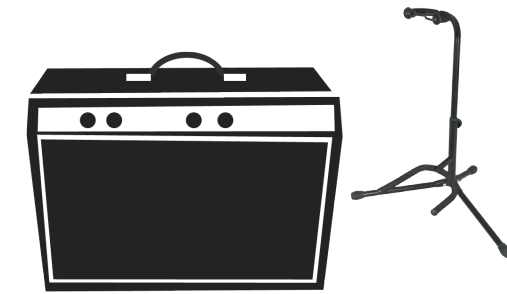

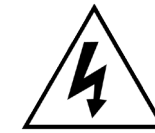

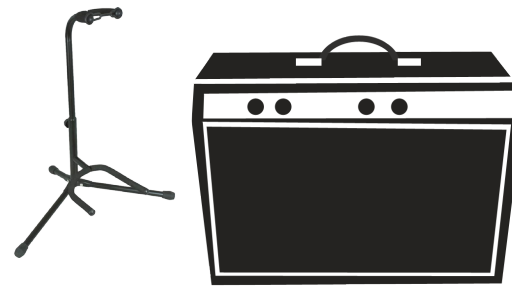

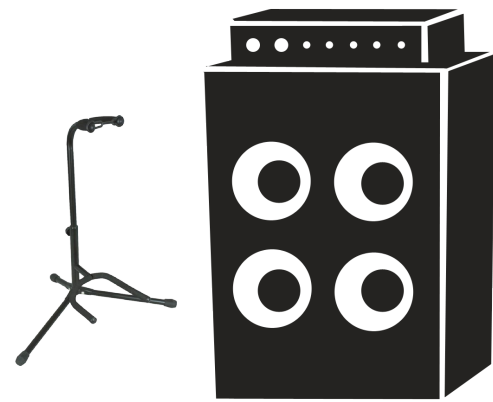

In their newest show, Todd Meredith & The Rave-Ons take you back to the birth place of rock & roll. Starting with the king of rock & roll, Elvis Presley, the band pays tribute to rock & roll's founders. Audience members will sing along to songs by all their favorite 50's artists like Chuck Berry, Carl Perkins, Johnny Cash, Roy Orbison, Bill Haley and The Comets, The Everly Brothers, and of course, Buddy Holly. By the end of the show, they will learn how all these great performers from the 50's inspired and spawned the best pop/rock band of all time, The Beatles. ROCKABILLY LEGENDS is a great pairing with THAT'LL BE THE DAY: A TRIBUTE TO BUDDY HOLLY for venues looking for more variety and perhaps looking to book two full-length shows in the same time frame.

A ROCKABILLY CHRISTMAS

Todd Meredith & The Rave-Ons celebrate the holiday season with this high energy Christmas concert featuring Buddy Holly's greatest hits along with great rockabilly Christmas songs like Rockin' Around The Christmas Tree, Jingle Bell Rock, Blue Christmas, and Run Run Rudolph. All original arrangements were produced by The Rave-Ons' own Jeremy Renner! The show premiered in Arizona in December 2014 with Showtune Productions and is a great addition to a theater's holiday season.
